Really is as good as the reviews say it is

Not strangers to lovely bijou Almyrida but first time to the Aloe. Very boutique modern hotel v close to beach. Amazing views from a lot of the rooms but landview ones have greenery and shade. Great that its Adults-only. Super attentive staff all round, spotlessly clean (very hard working housekeeping team) Toiletries provided were most aromatic and coffee machine in room the icing on the top. Property suits age groups 25-55 couples best IMHO. Some steps to rooms but lift in main building. Check out the Relax Terrace above the bar-even better views of the bay and charmingly lit at night.

Excellent Hotel

Firstly I can only echo all the excellent comments about this lovely hotel, so going to try to not repeat previous posts on the standards, staff etc.

Food at Aloe was great and plenty of it, portion size it appears throughout Crete is on the generous size. There are lots of restaurants within a five minute walk and we didn't have a bad meal, quality is very impressive.

Location is spot only with our room (407) being literally a one minute walk to the sun-beds on the beach. Our preference for sun-beds was those provided by Costamita, same price as the other provider (Atlantis) but gave water on arrival, better service and would run a tab rather than pay each time. They both take contactless btw!

We did one trip arranged by Jet2 which was the Jeep Safari into the White Mountains. This was well organised and we felt good value for money.

One thing I do want to mention and this is not a criticism, is that it is adult only (16+) and the majority of guests staying were couples, which the hotel is naturally more geared up for. We were a party of three and found the pool ambience very quiet so spent most days at the beach. I was aware of it being adults only beforehand and this is the first time we've booked a hotel of this type. Reason for the comment is that when reading reviews and selecting hotels this will now be a consideration for us. If you want quiet and intimate then this hotel will be perfect for you and 100% an ideal choice for a honeymoon.

To summarise we had a fantastic time at this hotel and Almyrida is a beautiful place. We never go back to the same resort twice, but if we did would have no hesitation in booking the Aloe Boutique & Suites again.

Dear Mr John, warm greetings from Aloe!

Just stunning 😍

This was our 1st holiday without our kids in 24 years so decided to really treat ourselves and what a treat. Cold towels and champagne on arrival was a very welcome luxury. Rooms were clean, airy and very stylish, communal areas spotless and luxurious, always sun loungers available, fresh bottled water in your room fridge every day, cool watermelon served at 2pm everyday by the pool (how I'll ever know it's 2pm at home now I just don't know 😊). Staff couldn't do enough for us and were always on hand to cater for our every need, nothing was too much trouble and all had a warm, welcoming greeting whenever saw them.

My only suggestion would be to have had drawers underneath the dressing table to store all my make up and cosmetics in so they didn't make the room look cluttered.

I treated myself to a neck and shoulder massage, which was absolutely heavenly. I don't have enough good words to say about the place.

As for the area it was stunning, enough bars and restaurants to visit every evening, great, fresh food on offer, super friendly people, always making you feel welcome.

The beach's were clean and you could always find somewhere to sit, we chose to go to the beach several times as there was a nice breeze and the sea felt slightly cooler than the pool which was a welcome relief on the day it was 40 degrees 🌡️.

All in all it was the most relaxing holiday we've ever had, just a good book, a Sun lounger and the most delightful staff we've ever encountered. A million thank yous go to you all for such a fabulous experience which I'll be sure to tell everyone about. Hopefully this will be one of the places we'll return to in the future 😊

Great welcome. Facing the sea in a nice village. Nice new hotel. Very good breakfast buffet. A nice gym. Magnificent swimming pool. An Adults only hotel so a very cozy atmosphere. Lots of little touches too. Finally, a good restaurant. In short, a very nice place!
