ATHENS

Athens is one of the most dynamic, beautiful, and historic places in the world. It's a majestic city full of ancient wonders that never ceases to amaze the travelers that honor it.

Athens Key is the central base for urban explorations in the heart of Athens, which impressively combines history and culture. In a few minutes, you will be standing in front of the prominent landmarks, the famous museums, the beautiful monuments, and of course the awe-inspiring Acropolis. Explore the ancient roots and the cultural treasures through your visits to Acropolis and Acropolis Museum, discover the gems of the National Archaeological Museum, and let yourself be enthralled by the unique beauty of the Cycladic Art Museum.

With so many streets to explore and so many souvenirs to buy, shopping in Athens needs its own chapter. During your walks at Monastiraki you will find a variety of local products, handmade crafts, but also numerous spots to enjoy authentic Greek food at its best. Ermou Street, the central shopping street in the city center which lies only 1.5 km from Athens Key, hosts many popular brands, both Greek and international, making it the best place for your shopping time.

Perfect for your lively nights in Athens, the districts of Psyrri and Thisseio are located just 10 and 20 minutes respectively from Athens Key Hotel and represent the heart of Athenian nightlife with infinite options for food and drinks. However, if you yearn to discover the morning quaintness of Athens, you should walk among the streets of renowned Plaka and descend the stairs of lovely Anafiotika neighbourhood.

Discovering this wonderful city, that has so much to tell, should be done in the most comfortable and time-saving way. Athens Key Hotel is your go-to travel companion for all the things you want to do in Athens. With a wide range of concierge services including transfers, reservations, city guide tours, ticket bookings, or anything else one could ask for, urban explorations have never been easier!
